

UC Merced Sierra Nevada Research Institute

in partnership with

Yosemite Leadership Program presents:

Pathways to Research

Guest speakers from Yosemite National Park, the US Forest Service Pacific Southwest Research Station, and UC Merced discuss research partnerships and employment opportunities for undergraduate and graduate students. Learn how to navigate the federal job application process and access amazing field and lab research experiences!

Thursday, March 10, 2022 9-10:30am

Join us on Zoom at <https://bit.ly/3hArOtf>

- 9:00-9:05am Introductions
- 9:05-9:20am Chrissy Howell, PhD, Research Program manager – Ecosystem Function and Health, US Forest Service, Pacific Southwest Research Station “Getting involved in research with the research branch of the US Forest Service”
- 9:20-9:35am Rob Grasso, MS, Aquatic Ecologist, Yosemite National Park “Research and management in the National Parks”
- 9:35-9:50am Tegan Plock, HR Liason, YNP “Applying for a federal job – top tips for success”
- 9:50-10:05am Cat Fong, MS, (Hydrologist, YNP) & Ana Perez (undergraduate, UC Merced) “Pathway to part-time ranger: hydrology in Yosemite”
- 10:05-10:30am “Ask Me Anything”

Info at SNRI.ucmerced.edu or contact SNRIrequests@ucmerced.edu

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA
MERCED

RESEARCH WEEK